Thank you for all your emails last week! Please keep sending me emails at dooleyf@mersd.org

Grade	Listening	Singing/Playing
K - 1	Joan Baez - We Shall Overcome Just like “This Little Light of Mine,” Martin Luther King and his helpers sang this song to fight for equal rights between black people and white people. “Overcome” means making it through a hard time or solving a problem.	Happy And You Know It Make up your own movements after the song is over Ms. Dooley performs This Little Light of Mine Head Shoulders Knees and Toes

Grade	Listening	Singing/Playing
2 - 5	Read about and listen to '60s Protest Music It's okay to skip songs you don't like after you give them a chance (at least 30 seconds). Choose 1 song to listen to carefully. Write 1-3 sentences about how it relates to civil rights, women's rights, or the anti-war movement. It's okay to get help with writing. I am more interested in your ideas than in your spelling and grammar. - Thank you for telling me which '60s song was your favorite last week! I thought it was interesting that almost everyone had a different answer.	Make Your Own Drum Set - I will edit together "Tomorrow" by next week. If you didn't send me a recording yet, there's still time! Tomorrow Lyrics Listen to this recording with headphones and record yourself singing along.
